

RESTORING NATURAL AREAS

Come and see my Bushcare backyard - Timetable

Saturday 4th February, 2012

Come and visit local backyards (and front yards) showcasing native plants and habitat. Some are full of trees, some are full of shrubs. Some have a few plants and some have a lot of plants. They are all different and open for you to come and have a look, ask questions, get ideas or just enjoy Bushcare with a difference.
